

2018 Public Art Grant Awards

Project Name	Grantee	Award	Project Summary
Creative Courts	New Bedford Art Museum/ArtWorks!	$ 35,000	Revitalize and renovate public basketball courts in Fall River and New Bedford through a transformative art mural-style court project by engaging children from the neighborhoods.
New Bedford Summer Winds 2019	DATMA	$ 27,500	Existing as a museum without walls, DATMA will transform downtown New Bedford into an urban theater by using landmarks and parks as its gallery sites to exhibit cutting-edge public art.
Island Park & Mural	Cape Verdean Assoc. of New Bedford	$ 30,000	Transform the entrance to the "Ave" through the creation of Island Park representative of North End's diverse "island" ethnic communities.
Music in the City	New Bedford Symphony Orchestra	$ 30,000	Bring pop-up NBSO performances to community venues throughout neighborhoods in New Bedford and Fall River
Through Our Eyes: Celebrating Cultural Diversity	SER-Jobs for Progress, Inc.	$ 17,500	Create a city-wide public display of large format photos of immigrants in the community, utilizing photography to help celebrate Fall River's cultural and linguistic diversity.
Frederick Douglass Statue	New Bedford Historical Society	$ 10,000	Create a permanent memorial to Frederick Douglass at Abolition Row Park.
SUPERFLAT NB 2019	SUPERFLAT New Bedford	$ 17,500	Engage the viewer with the production of murals and elevate the nature and tone of public discourse through good design, a diversity of artists, and subject matter that treats people and public spaces with dignity and respect.
Azorean Contemporary Culture & Art Festival	Casa dos Acores da Nova Inglaterra (CANI)	$ 15,000	Engage internationally renowned artists who will collaborate with local artists and the community in Fall River to create a regional multidisciplinary art festival similar to the Walk&Talk and Tremor festivals in Portugal.
Celebrate! Mayan Work & Culture	Community Economic Development Center	$ 5,000	Elevate the voice and visibility of Mayan-Guatemalan community through public art and cultural events.
		$ 187,500	